

DEFER, SUSPENSION & CANCELLATION POLICY & PROCEDURES (International Students)

Scope

This policy is to:

- set out a fair and transparent policy and procedure when dealing with students regarding deferring, suspension and cancellation.
- set out the circumstances in which Evolution will consider as compassionate or compelling circumstances exist for students, to defer the commencement of studies, take a leave from studies or temporarily suspend their studies during their program.
- set out the circumstances in which Evolution may seek to cancel or suspend the student's enrolment.
- ensure that Evolution complies with legislative and regulatory requirements.

This policy applies to:

- all international students (enrolled and intending students).
- all Evolution stakeholders.

Definitions

DEFINITION
CoE	Confirmation of Enrolment
Cancellation	Cancel the student's enrolment (CoE) permanently. This can be initiated by a student or Evolution.
Compassionate or compelling circumstances	Circumstances are generally those beyond the control of the student and have an impact on the student's course progress or well-being. These could include, but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • serious illness or injury, where a medical certificate states that the student was unable to attend classes. • bereavement of close family members such as parents or grandparents (where possible a death certificate should be provided). • major political upheaval or natural disaster in the home country requiring emergency travel and this has impacted the student's studies. • traumatic experience, which could include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ involvement in, or witnessing of a serious accident; or ◦ witnessing or being the victim of a serious crime, and this has impacted on the student (these cases should be supported by police or psychologists' reports) • where the registered provider was unable to offer a pre-requisite unit, or the student has failed a prerequisite unit and therefore faces a shortage of relevant units for which they are eligible to enrol. Note: Evolution uses professional judgement to assess each case on its merits.
Deferment	A request by the student (student-initiated) temporarily postpones the commencement of study.
Evolution / College	Evolution Systems for Training and Development Pty Ltd (ABN: 73 114 531 636) trading as Evolution Hospitality Institute/Evolution English Language Centre (RTO 91256) (CRICOS: 02869G)

DEFINITION
International Student / Overseas Student	An overseas student is defined as a person (whether inside or outside Australia) who holds a student visa
PRISMS	Provider Registration and International Student Management System.
Suspension	A request by the student (student-initiated) temporarily postpones the enrolment after commencement.

Policy and Procedures

- Deferring, suspending or cancelling enrolment on any grounds may affect a student visa.
- A student's visa may be cancelled if the deferral or suspension:
 - is due to the conduct of the student;
 - is for reasons other than compassionate or compelling circumstances;
 - the compassionate or compelling circumstances which warranted the deferral or suspension of studies cease to exist; or
 - is based on fraudulent evidence or documents given to the Evolution.

STUDENT'S REQUEST

DEFERRAL OR SUSPENSION

- Deferral or Suspension request:
 - must be made due to compassionate or compelling reasons.
 - must be made in writing and the signature needs to match that on the passport.
 - must provide documentary evidence.
 - must be submitted at least 10 working days before the requested deferral or suspension date.
- If the Deferral or Suspension request is APPROVED, Evolution will:
 - advise the student in writing of the approved deferral or suspension period and/or new commencement date and/or new fees may apply.
 - advise the student to contact the Department of Home Affairs to discuss the potential impact on the visa.
 - inform the Department of Education, via PRISMS, of the change to the student's enrolment within 31 days.
- If the Deferral or Suspension request is REFUSED, Evolution will:
 - advise the student in writing of the refusal with reasons.
 - inform the student of the right to access the complaints and appeals process.

EVOLUTION INITIATED SUSPENSION OR CANCELLATION OF STUDENT'S ENROLMENT

- Evolution may suspend or cancel a student's enrolment based on, but not limited to:
 - misbehaviour by the student.
 - the student's failure to pay the required amount to undertake or continue the course as stated in the written agreement.
 - a breach of course progress or attendance requirements by the student.
- For any suspension or cancellation of enrolment initiated by Evolution,
 - the student will be given a notice of Intention to Report and 20 working days to access Evolution's internal complaints and appeals process, UNLESS the student's health or wellbeing, or the wellbeing of others, is likely to be at risk, including but not limited to:
 - refuses to maintain approved care arrangements, if they are under 18 years of age.
 - is missing.
 - has medical concerns, severe depression or psychological issues which lead the provider to fear for the overseas student's wellbeing.
 - has engaged or threatened to engage in behaviour that is reasonably believed to endanger the overseas student or others.
 - is at risk of committing a criminal offence.
 - inform the student of that intention and the reasons for doing so, in writing.
 - recommend that the student contacts the Department of Home Affairs to discuss how a deferral or temporary suspension may impact their visa.
- Evolution will ONLY wait for both internal and external complaints handling and appeals process to be completed to proceed with the suspension or cancellation of student's enrolment in cases of progress and/or attendance breaches (if needed).

Complaints and Appeals

- Where the student has chosen to appeal Evolution's decision to defer, suspend or cancel the enrolment within 20 days and the process results in a decision supporting the student, the enrolment will continue, and Evolution will provide learning opportunities for the student to catch up on academic progress if needed.
- Where the student has chosen not to appeal, Evolution's decision to defer, suspend or cancel the enrolment in a course will stand, and Evolution will inform the Department of Education, via the PRISMS, of the change to the student's enrolment.
